STAYING SAFE

One of my goals as commander is to keep the quality of life high for the Soldiers and family members at U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden. This summer, I need your help to accomplish this task and keep each other safe.

With the weather getting warmer and days getting longer, children will be spending more time outside. Be careful when driving through the housing areas. Keep a watchful eye out for kids playing or riding their bikes.

Please keep safety in mind when you grill. In housing areas, grilling is forbidden on balconies. Grills should be at least 30 feet from the building. Never add flammable materials or fluids to a grill once it is lit. Make sure the coals are extinguished before disposal.

Empty kids' wading/swimming pools after use to reduce the chances of accidental drowning. Do not leave pools filled with water overnight.

Please review the child supervision policy on our web site, www.wiesbaden.army.mil. It offers age-specific guidelines to help keep your kids safe.

If you see policy violations, please contact your stairwell, building or area coordinators. Together, we can keep each other safe this summer.

Lt. Col. Timothy Wulff
Commander, U.S. Army
Garrison Wiesbaden

PHOTO CONTEST

It has been said that a picture is worth a thousand words and now, competing in a photo contest can make it worth $1,000. Through July 31, the Army and Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES) sponsors the Patriot POG Gift Certificate Photo Contest. Submission to the contest should depict the essence of activities in Operations Enduring and Iraqi Freedom, or highlight activities in support of deployed troops, such as scenes of service members returning home. Twelve winning photos will receive gift cards and ultimately appear on 5-, 10- and 25-cent

POGs which are flat, disc-like gift certificates used in place of traditional currency at contingency exchanges. The Patriot POG Gift Certificate Photo Contest is only open to authorized Exchange customers and no purchase is necessary. Designs featured in previous POG series are available online at AAFES.com. Contestants may submit digital images or mail in photos. Pictures taken with any kind of camera can win as long as the final product is great. E-mail photos to aafespog@harperhouse.com, include AAFES POG CONTEST in the subject line.

Congratulations!

TRAFFIC FORECAST FOR FRANKFURT AREA

Traffic congestion on the highways around the Main metropolis should not be larger than during regular federal league games. Congestions are expected on A-3 (Würzburg - Köln) between the Offenbach - and Frankfurt cross, especially at the junction to Frankfurt-Süd due to back up traffic from the stadium entrance.

Drivers who want to avoid the hype should drive widely around the stadium area. Transit traffic in direction Nordrhein-Westfalen (North-Rhine Westphalia) should take the A-45 or A-61.

Considerable traffic jams are also expected in the center city area around the fan fest. It is recommended for drivers who want to travel to Frankfurt city to use the park and ride parking areas i.e. Borsigallee or Kalbach, or switch to public transportation.

Soccer fans, who own a ticket and travel with a privately-owned vehicle, are directed to special marked parking lots via a colored traffic direction system from the highways within the larger area around Frankfurt (pay attention to the color code on the ticket). The parking fee is €4. The way from the parking lot to the stadium takes approx. 25 minutes. Due to intensive traffic congestion and controls it is recommended to arrive early by POV or change to public transportation. The World Cup ticket includes cost free traveling by public transport.

The stadium can be reached by the S-Bahn (suburban railway) S-8 & S-9 (green & yellow color code on the ticket) or with the streetcars 20 and 21 (recommended for blue & red coded ticket). If arriving via airplane one can travel directly with the S-Bahn S-8 & S-9 to the stadium.

Soccer fans, who do not own a ticket, are able to watch all games as part of a "fan fest" on a large screen. The official fest will be at the center city along both banks of the Main River. A large screen will be installed on a floating island.

There are five world cup games in Frankfurt:

3 p.m. June 10 — England - Paraguay

3 p.m. June 13 — South Korea - Togo

3 p.m. June 17 — Portugal - Iran

9 p.m. June 21 — Netherlands - Argentina

9 p.m. July 1 — quarter final
